Size Release: You have selected your size by comparing your measurements to the manufacturer's size chart. It is important for you to understand that the garment is not made to all the customer's measurements. We may suggest a size for you based on the manufacturer's size chart, but the final decision is up to you.

Due to variations in dye lots, gowns and dresses may vary slightly from the color of the sample presented. To ensure color consistency, Dori Anne Veils will order all attendants gowns at the same time. If you choose to order them separately, we will not be held responsible if dye lots do not match.

Dori Anne Veils carries products from various locations, so delivery will vary with each product. When the order is placed, we will do our best to make sure the item will be available in time for your event. If it is available, but not in the time frame the customer deems adequate the customer can decide if they would like to pay for a faster method of shipment.

All merchandise is put into production or is ordered from the manufacturer especially for you. Once the gown or dress has been ordered, Dori Anne Veils is not responsible for any change in measurements (weight gain or loss). Size changes or cancellations are not possible.

Dori Anne Veils reserves the right to adjust this sales contract for mathematical errors, sales tax corrections, additional manufacturer charges (e.g. rush fess, special sizing, changes in skirt, train or sleeve length, etc.) and extra shipping charges for quicker deliveries. Alterations, pressing or bustle not included in the quoted price.

Any merchandise bought directly from stock is sold on an "as-is" basis and is a final sale. It is your responsibility to inspect the merchandise before the purchase. Any defects (tears, stains, missing beads, etc.) are the responsibility of the purchaser. No refunds, exchanges or store credits on payments received for any merchandise. Payments are non-transferable.
